

REMARKS1. Amendments to the Specification

To facilitate in the reporting of Governmental License Rights in the present application, the Applicants have amended the written specification. Specifically, the U.S. Government has a paid-up license in this invention and the right in limited circumstances to require the patent owner to license others on reasonable terms as provided for by the terms of N66001-98-1-8914 awarded by the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA). No new matter has been introduced by the amendments.

Applicants respectfully request examination in view of the remarks. A notice of allowance is earnestly solicited.
